PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

P & C CAKE STALL

Thank-you to all the parents who baked cookies slices and cakes for our Cake Stall last Saturday. Thanks also to the parents and students who coordinated the stall. We raised $455 which will go towards purchasing i-Pads for our school. This week, our Year 6 students are running a 'Guessing competition.' Thank you to Mrs Tahan for donating the 'm' and 'm's. The winner will take the chocolates home on Thursday, $1 for 1 guess, $2 for 3 guesses.

ATHLETICS (TERM 2) – Every Tuesday

Next term, all students from Kindergarten to Year 6 will learn the skills required for athletics, this program will be coordinated by 'Dance Fever'. This will occur every Tuesday from weeks 1 to 9 therefore all students will need to wear their sports uniform. Remember this for Tuesday 21st April, first day back next term. Payment for this is included in the school requirements. Please contact the Office to organise a payment plan if you have not as yet paid your School Requirements in full.

WELCOME MISS TLEIS

I would like to welcome Miss Tleis to Banksia Road. She will be working as a support teacher, helping students develop their English skills. From the beginning of Term 2, Miss Tleis will be on 3N for Mrs Capra as she will be absent due to having knee surgery.
